

Attachment A General Instructions:

Each State must provide the information indicated below on its TANF program regardless of the funding source -- i.e., no matter whether the State used segregated Federal TANF funds, segregated State TANF funds, or commingled funds to pay for the benefit or service.

If the State elects to report on other benefits or activities provided through other program funding streams, please mention it after the TANF-funded benefits or activities for each item.

1. The State's definition of each work activity.

Please refer to Utah's Work Verification Plan, pages 1-21. The following are activities that do not count as federal work activities, but can be opened when they appropriately define what the participant is actually doing and has negotiated in their employment plan to address barriers to employment and self-sufficiency: o Activity Review o Parent Caring for a Disabled Family Member o Alternative School (FEP customer must be co-enrolled in WIA Youth) o Assessment o DWS Social Worker/LCT o Choose to Work Assisted Primary Services o Comprehensive Guidance and Counseling o Cultural Integration o Employment Mentoring o Formal Assessment o Non-Participation Assessment o Problem Solving Assessment o Trial Participation o Family Counseling o Life Skills (Other) o Resolving Life Issues o Pursuing Disability Income o Family Violence Treatment o Mental Health Treatment o Physical Treatment o Substance Abuse Treatment o Youth Assessment o Youth Formal Assessment o Youth Mentoring. The following services are provided to support participation in work eligible activities as well as non- work eligible activities: o Mental Health Services were provided to 3,852 TANF/FEP eligible individuals. These mental health services include full clinical evaluations and consultations during the activity review process and reaching time limits. Of this unduplicated number, 953 individuals were referred for clinical evaluations due to domestic violence related issues. Licensed clinical therapists also conduct strength-based group presentations at least once a week during our Work Success program. o Legal services provided to approximately 42 FEP customers o Various education and training projects serving approximately 3,187 individuals.

2. A description of the transitional services provided to families no longer receiving assistance due to employment.

(1) Case Management Extended Services may be provided to individuals for 24 months following a Family Employment Program case closure for employment or other reasons. This provides follow-up case management and support during the transition to employment, if applicable. Supportive services listed below may also be available. (2) Supportive Services may be approved to reduce recidivism with the provision that former recipients continue to participate in activities leading to increased family income. Supportive Services include: (a) Child Care: Individuals whose financial assistance is closed because of increased income, with a least one dollar of earned income in the household, can receive the first six months of child care after the financial case closure without having to pay any required out-of-pocket parent co-payment child care as long as there is an approved need for child care (b) Transitional Medicaid and Food Stamps: A household that has received Medicaid and has earned income above the Medicaid thresholds may be eligible for up to 24 months of transitional Medicaid. The household may also be categorically eligible for Food Stamps for 24 months.

3. A description of how a State will reduce the amount of assistance payable to a family when an individual refuses to engage in work without good cause pursuant to 45 CFR 261.14 of this chapter.

When a FEP participant refuses to engage in work activities without reasonable cause, the Activity Review process is initiated. When it is discovered that a participant may not be participating in agreed upon activities, the goal is to engage them in participation activities so as to avoid case closure. Upon discovery of non-participation, the Activity Review service is opened on the employment plan for a minimum of seven days. A notice is mailed to the customer informing them that a sanction will occur if participation is not confirmed. If contact with the FEP participant is unsuccessful, the Non-Participation Assessment must be opened by the 10th calendar day of the month that the case is set to close. A supervisor must review the case, and if they agree with the decision, the case will be closed at the end of that month. Throughout the Activity Review process, contact with the customer is attempted and the goal is to re-engage the customer and avoid a sanction. If a sanction is applied, the case remains closed for one full month. In order to be considered for FEP after the one full month sanction, a new application is required and the eligibility process must occur. The participant will then need to meet with an employment counselor and complete a two-week trial participation. Upon successful completion of those elements, the case can be reopened.

This information and a description of our grievance procedures is also printed on every financial assistance application and posted in each EC. The EC Manager and Supervisor are familiar with the policies that must be adhered to. The fair hearing process is also identified in the State Administrative Rules. The Administrative Rules are posted on the Internet at www.rules.utah.gov.

8. A summary of State programs and activities directed at the third and fourth statutory purposes of TANF (as specified at 45 CFR 260.20(c) and (d) of this chapter).

a. Summarize below, the State programs and activities directed at preventing and reducing the incidence of out-of- wedlock pregnancies and establishing annual numerical goals for preventing and reducing the incidence of these pregnancies (TANF purpose 3):

DWS provides out-of-wedlock pregnancy prevention services to target groups that will facilitate reduction of the rate of out of wedlock pregnancies. Efforts to achieve a reduction rate goal of 2 percent annually include a wide variety of programs and activities listed below:

- Out of school time education outreach programs for teens to take a youth development approach to out-of-wedlock pregnancy prevention. These programs teach male and female students, focusing on seven prevention components: career exploration, healthy body/healthy lifestyles, financial literacy, healthy interpersonal relationships, prevention of tobacco/drug/alcohol abuse, prevention of violence/gang affiliation, and prevention of pregnancy/sexually transmitted infections (STI). The program materials promote self-esteem, character building, life skills development, leadership skill building, the benefits of employment, career planning, smart choices, peer support groups, strategies to improve academic and social outcomes, and the importance of high school or GED completion. These programs also facilitate the formation of secure, stable relationships with caring adults, and provide prevention and intervention learning opportunities that are culturally and linguistically responsive to the needs of youth. As many as 9,955 youth between the ages of 12 and 18 participated in after school programs focused on prevention, at 56 after school sites. Additionally, 12,390 youth between the ages of 6 and 11 participated in after school programs focused on prevention at 109 after school sites. Statutory rape law and reporting information was presented to administrators, site coordinators and staff. This information is used to educate after school staff who inform youth in their programs.
- Baby Watch Early Intervention Services offers assessment services and access to a network of services for families with children up to age three with developmental delays or disabilities. • Social and Humanitarian Services, the social services program, includes volunteers who provide services to needy families including employment resources; teaching family relationships, marriage and parenting classes; handling pregnancy classes, and adoption hot lines. Emergency response volunteers also assist with the production of kits for humanitarian distribution and other emergency response/clean-up efforts. • Juvenile Justice Programs, including but not limited to: Receiving Centers: locations for local law enforcement to take youth after arrest for status offenses or delinquent acts that do not meet the Detention Admission Guidelines; 24-hour crisis counseling and 60-day individual and family counseling to keep the family together and keep the youth from entering the juvenile justice system; Observation and Assessment: provides comprehensive evaluation and assessment for psychological, behavioral, social, educational, and physical issues to determine the youth's need for services. These program services have been successful in supporting Utah's status as one of the states leading the nation in low percentages of live births to unmarried mothers. According to Utah Vital Statistics Data, Utah's percent of out-of-wedlock births for FFY 2010 (the last year the data is available) is 19 percent. • Back to Work UI Youth Subsidized Employment provides an opportunity for youth ages 18 to 24 who are receiving Utah Unemployment Insurance benefits to receive a wage subsidy of up to $2,000 when hired by an eligible employer. Between October 1, 2011 and September 30, 2012, 3,058 Youth UI claimants enrolled in the program and 706 of those enrolled were eligible for and authorized the full subsidy, paid directly to the employer.

b. Summarize below, the State programs and activities directed at encouraging the formation and maintenance of two-parent families (TANF purpose 4):

•The Utah Healthy Marriage Initiative focuses on helping people form and sustain a healthy and enduring marriage by promoting/providing marriage education services, resources, and training. Building service capacity throughout the state has been a primary goal. The website, www.StrongerMarriage.org, provides a statewide reach with free on-line marriage courses, a free course for new parents, and other researched information and resources. Social media (Facebook & Twitter) is also utilized as part of an ongoing media campaign. The initiative distributes a healthy marriage booklet to teachers and students of the high school course, “Adult Roles and Financial Literacy” to use as a supplement—reaching more than 9,000 high school seniors. A couples’ counseling training seminar is conducted annually for professional and faith-based counselors and family life educators. A healthy marriage conference or other activities for the general public is held in several counties during Marriage Week USA. In addition, 19 of Utah’s 29 counties have local community relationship education services funded by the initiative. In FFY12, the Utah Healthy Marriage Initiative reached approximately 532,820 individuals. 381,080 attended a Healthy Marriage Initiative class, conference, event or received printed healthy marriage information. As many as 321 professional and faith-based counselors and family life educators attended a couples counseling training seminar. More than 9,000 high school seniors received the Utah Marriage Handbook in their Adult Roles and Financial Literacy class. •Through the social services program, volunteers provide services to needy families including: employment resources; teaching family relationships, marriage, and parenting classes; handling pregnancy classes, and adoption hotlines. Emergency response volunteers also assist with the production of kits for humanitarian distribution and other emergency response/clean-up efforts. •CASA is a volunteer organization that empowers everyday citizens with the ability to transform the lives of vulnerable children. Volunteers advocate for the best interests of abused and neglected children. In Utah, CASA works in partnership with the Office of the Guardian ad Litem.

obtaining employment or participating in federal work activities. Activities may also include domestic violence, substance abuse, or mental health counseling, workshops, training, on the job training, etc. Employment counselors monitor customer progress and participation in agreed upon activities. Supportive services are provided to customers while they participate in plan activities. Supportive services may continue after the family stops receiving cash assistance. FEP and FEP-TP applicants are required to complete a substance abuse screening questionnaire to determine the likelihood of a substance use disorder involving the misuse of a controlled substance. Upon completion of the substance abuse screening questionnaire and the approval of FEP or FEP-TP, those who are determined likely to have substance use disorders are required to complete a drug test. Customers who test positive for a controlled substance on a drug test are required to complete treatment as an activity for FEP or FEP-TP. Failure to complete a drug test or participate in mandatory substance abuse treatment will result in a three-month sanction for the first occurrence, and a twelve month sanction for any subsequent occurrence in a twelve month period.
